PSY605 Developmental Psychology
Program Proposal Tracks and Topics in Developmental Psychology

Track 1: Community

The following community-based program proposals may be used to provide options of how these types of proposals may be constructed: the Centerville Community Center Proposal from Colorado Grants, and the Community Based Youth Project Proposal from QuickBooks: Docstoc.

Issues

- Sexuality
- Family Structure
- Family Systems
- Parent/Child Relationships
- Parenting Styles
- Prenatal Development
- Infant Care
- Young Adulthood in the Contemporary Era (“Millennials”)
- Bullying and/or Cyberbullying
- Media Influences (Screen Time/Technology)
- Cultural and/or Racial Differences/Inequalities

Track 2: Clinical/Counseling

The following clinical/counseling based program proposals may be used to provide options of how these types of proposals may be constructed: the Comprehensive Worksite Wellness Program for Allegan County Government from Allegan County, MI.

Issues

- Mental Health Care
- Nutrition
- Alcohol or Drug Use/Abuse
- Teen Pregnancy
- Midlife Issues
- Autism
- Neurological Disorders
- Trauma (PTSD, abuse, etc.)
- Suicide
- Grief
- Aging
- Palliative Care
- Euthanasia

Track 3: Education

The following education-based program proposals may be used to provide options of how these types of proposals may be constructed: the Community Based Educational Project for the non school going and never been to school children between the age group of 5 to 9 years from Asha for Education.

Issues

- Learning Disabilities
- Early Intervention Practices and Policies
- K-12 School Settings (education style, policy, practices)
- Adult Education
- Child Care
- Higher Education Degrees, Programs, or Courses