

ACADEMIC PAPER CHECKLIST

The following is a checklist for writing an academic-style paper. Use this to ensure all your academic papers are complete and correctly structured.

- Have you addressed all the items in the assignment prompt? Use the assignment instructions as a checklist to be sure you've covered everything. Use this video on Aligning your Paper with the Assignment Prompt.
- Did you begin your paper with an Introduction paragraph that ends with a Thesis Statement?
- Have you included multiple well-developed Body Paragraphs and integrate concepts, ideas, or information from required readings and/or outside research into those paragraphs? Use this guide on Integrating Research.
- Did you create a Conclusion paragraph that reiterates the overall thesis, the main points made, and shares the significance of the topic?
- Have you used an Academic Voice throughout your paper?
- Did you correctly cite your sources as you used them? Use this In-Text Citation Guide.
- Did you create a references page for the sources you used? Use this guide on Formatting Your References List.
- Have you met all the requirements within the assignment instructions including word count, number of sources, use of APA or other style guide?
- Did you review your writing for correct grammar, punctuation, and spelling? Use Grammarly.

For more help writing an academic paper, please see our Writing an Academic Paper guide.

Get writing or APA questions answered in real time by using the 24/7 Live Writing Tutoring available for free.

Have your paper reviewed by a writing tutor and get suggestions for revision within 24 hours by using the free Paper Review service.